Dear Madam:

RE: ~~PRICE DIST.~~

I have your letter of Sept. 8 and again assure you that I have not forgotten the matter and am proceeding with it as fast as is consistent with getting results. According to your letter the Elegantis pay no attention to authority so it seems that the only solution is to fix up their equipment so that they cannot take the water as easily as at present. The other alternative is to have a deputy on the job all the time and no one seems to want to bear that expense.

Yours very truly,

State Engineer.
